A. General information about the course:

1. Course Identification:

1. Credit hours: (3)

This course is designated 3 credit hours, as indicated in the parentheses above. In Section 3, 'CONTACT HOURS', a detailed breakdown of the course's contact hours is provided, specifying lectures, tutorials, laboratory sessions, and other forms of student-teacher interaction. Meanwhile, Section C, 'COURSE CONTENT', elucidates the primary topics, themes, and sub-areas that the course will cover, ensuring students are aware of the academic terrain they will navigate throughout the term. It is essential to refer to these sections for a comprehensive understanding of the course's structure and content.

2. Course type

A.  University  College  Department  Track

B.  Required  Elective

3. Level/year at which this course is offered: (Semester 2/Year 1)

4. Course General Description:

The course "Teaching English as a Foreign Language" offers a holistic exploration of the pedagogical, cultural, and technological dimensions of English language teaching in diverse global contexts. It synthesizes theoretical foundations with practical applications, focused on the comprehensive development of the four main language skills—Listening, Speaking, Reading, and Writing. Special attention is accorded to classroom management strategies, assessment methodologies, and the integration of digital tools, all tailored to the specific needs and cultural sensitivities of EFL learners. Through lectures, case studies, and hands-on activities, candidates will acquire the capability to design culturally responsive EFL materials and employ differentiated instructional strategies for mixed-ability classes.

7. Course Main Objective(s):

The principal objectives of this course are as follows:

- To impart an understanding of the global landscape of Teaching English as a Foreign Language, covering both its objectives and inherent challenges.
- To enable candidates to apply state-of-the-art techniques and methodologies in teaching Listening, Speaking, Reading, and Writing within an EFL framework.

- To cultivate sensitivity to the psychological, cultural, and social factors that influence English language acquisition, and to incorporate this awareness into pedagogical practices.
- To develop expertise in classroom management strategies and assessment mechanisms that are both effective and culturally sensitive.
- To equip candidates with the skills to integrate digital tools and multimedia resources for a more engaging and effective EFL learning experience.
- To instill values of professional integrity, cultural respect, and ethical responsibility in all aspects of EFL teaching and assessment.

The course aims to produce educators who are not just technically proficient but are also culturally aware and ethically responsible, in alignment with both academic standards and the multifaceted needs of EFL learners globally.

B. Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs), Teaching Strategies and Assessment Methods:

Code	Course Learning Outcomes	Code of PLOs aligned with the program	Teaching Strategies	Assessment Methods
1.0	Knowledge and understanding
1.1	Enumerate the objectives and challenges inherent to the Teaching English as a Foreign Language (TEFL) landscape in a global context.	K2	Facilitate a Socratic seminar that stimulates critical thought about the evolving objectives and challenges of TEFL in today's globalized world. This would provide a venue for students to engage in the complexity and nuances of TEFL within diverse settings.	Assessed through the Mid-term Test and Final Exam.
1.2	Identify the key techniques and approaches in teaching the four main language skills: Listening, Speaking, Reading, and Writing, within an EFL setting.	K1	Use a "flipped classroom" model for this segment. Prior to class, students read about the four major language skills. During the class, they discuss and critique different teaching techniques for Listening, Speaking, Reading, and Writing, sharing insights and posing questions.	Assessed through Lesson Plans Preparation and Oral Presentations.
1.3	Recognize the psychological, cultural, and social factors influencing English as a Foreign Language acquisition.	K3	Engage students in an in-depth discussion on the psychological, cultural, and social factors affecting EFL acquisition. Prepare a set of guiding questions to stimulate debate and critical thought on how these factors interplay with teaching strategies.	Assessed through Assignments, Participation, and the Final Exam.

2.2	Design and implement Reading and Writing instruction tailored to EFL learners, ranging from literacy to fluency.	S1	Introduce the concept of "modular instructional design" where students can craft mini-lessons for Reading and Writing tailored to hypothetical EFL learners. Peer reviews would serve as a platform for constructive critique and refinement.	Assessed through Lesson Plans Preparation and Assignments.
2.3	Develop strategies for effective classroom management specific to the EFL context.	S4	Conduct a simulation of classroom scenarios where students can role-play as both teachers and students to practice classroom management techniques specific to EFL settings.	Assessed through Assignments, Participation, and Oral Presentations.
2.4	Execute assessment and evaluation mechanisms that are both effective and culturally sensitive.	S2	Lead a seminar on "cultural sensitivity in evaluation," discussing best practices for gauging student understanding without explicit assessments, focusing on culturally sensitive alternatives.	Assessed through Mid-term Test and Final Exam.
2.5	Utilize digital tools and multimedia resources to enhance the EFL learning experience.	S5	Employ an exploratory approach where students can interact with a range of digital tools and multimedia resources. Facilitate a	Assessed through Assignments and Oral Presentations.

3.0	Values, autonomy, and responsibility
3.1	Uphold professional integrity in both the execution and assessment of EFL pedagogy.	V1	Dedicate a session to discussing the code of ethics and professional guidelines within the TEFL field, using real-life examples to elucidate the concept of professional integrity.	Assessed through all assessment activities with particular emphasis during the Final Exam.
3.2	Exhibit respect for local customs and moralities, particularly in the use of the first language (L1) in the EFL classroom.	V2	Conduct a mock classroom situation where English is the foreign language to be learned. Utilize this to examine and discuss the appropriateness and sensitivity of using the first language (L1) in an EFL context.	Assessed through observations during Oral Presentations and continuous assessment.
3.3	Show appreciation for English cultural norms and ethics as they manifest in the target language (TL) use within the teaching environment.	V3	Facilitate a discussion on English cultural norms and ethical considerations in the teaching environment, utilizing scholarly articles and academic publications as the basis for a well-informed debate.	Assessed through Assignments, Participation, and Oral Presentations.
