

CLT Final Exam Regulations

Students must leave unauthorized materials outside the exam hall.

IDs must be verified at the entrance; students without valid IDs must obtain a duplicate ID from the registrar.

Devices capable of storing data, such as phones, smartwatches, and Bluetooth headphones, are strictly prohibited. These devices must be switched off and placed in a zipped bag either on the floor or under the chair.

Students' headscarves should not cover ears or faces.

No student may enter after the first 30 minutes or leave during this time. Late students cannot receive extra time.

No Cheating: Any cheating cases or attempts will be immediately reported to the Exam Committee at CLT College and the appropriate authorities at KKU University for necessary action

Students must direct any questions about misprints to the course instructor.

Students feeling unwell during the exam must leave their materials in the exam room and notify the Exam Committee. Upon their return, no extra time will be granted.

Students needing to visit the toilet must first notify the Exam Committee. They must be accompanied by an invigilator who will ensure no access to unauthorized materials or communication occurs.

Best of luck!

CLT Exam Committee